PROGRAM:

This week's program was an old favorite. Coach Jim Rowland, the Fort Smith Public Schools Athletic Director, came and spoke about the sports programs in our schools. Last year, our high schools brought home four state championships. He also told us that his job is to find and recruit coaches for all levels and in all sports. He happened to bring with him, two of his best! First to speak was Jeff Williams, head coach Southside Football. As always, Jeff showed his dedication to not just a winning team; but guiding our young adults to academic excellence. Jeff was followed by his Northside counterpart, Daryl Henry. Daryl gave a great rundown on his approach to high school football and competition, in general. All in all, what a super presentation by three of Fort Smith's best!

A big THANK YOU goes out to Jackie Krutsch for her superlative performance as Program Chair in August!

HUMOR:

There was this little kid who had a bad habit of sucking his thumb. His mother finally told him that if he didn't stop sucking his thumb, he'd get fat.

Two weeks later, his mother had her friends over for a game of bridge. The boy points to an obviously pregnant woman and says, "Ah, ha! I know what you've been doing!"

FUTURE PROGRAMS:

Sept 7 --- Tommy Craft, ESPN Radio
Sept 14 --- Benny Westphal, Riverfront Development

"If you're afraid of the future, then get out of the way, stand aside. The people of this country are ready to move again." Ronald Reagan
