ANNOUNCEMENTS:

---Girls Inc is looking for volunteers to help set up their Haunted House Fundraiser. Help is needed on Saturday, 9/15 and 22 from 9am to noon. Drop by if you can and give the girls a hand.

--- Welcome to our Regional Vice President, Brenda Robinson and our District President, Bob Hester. During their visit, Brenda installed Gary Marcotte as the District President-Elect.

PROGRAM:

Wow! If you're a Razorback fan and you didn't attend; you missed a great session. Tommy Craft, the co-host of the Morning Rush (ESPN Radio 96.3) gave a brief rundown on the latest Hog news and then opened up for questions. The questions ranged from "Will Casey Dick ever learn to throw?" to "Will Arkansas ever leave the SEC for bigger prey?" Tommy may seem quite opinionated, but he backs up his opinions with actual data and events. He has a very clear and concise presentation of his ideas. Bottom line prediction: a 9 and 3 season. We'll be sure to have him back towards the end of the season.

HUMOR:

Some thoughts on retirement and old age:

--- The worst thing about retirement is that coffee breaks are on your own time.

--- Retirement means never having a day off.

--- You know you're getting old when all the names in your personal phone book end in MD.

--- Be nice to your children, they'll be choosing your nursing home.

--- Those wild oats you sewed have turned to prunes and bran.

--- Youth is wasted on the young!

FUTURE PROGRAMS:

Sept 14 --- Benny Westphal, Riverfront development

Sept 21 --- Jane Owens, Center for Art and Education

Sept 28 --- Robyn Fowler, East Germany trip

Oct 05 --- Steak Fry

Oct 12 --- Bernie Blizzard, National Cemetery at Fort Smith

Oct 26 --- Scott James, Fort Smith Flying Club
